GOWDY WOULD LIKE TO STAY

Indianapolis Star Says Consul Gen. Believes he is Entitled to Remain.

Gowdys are Said to Like Paris and the People—Mr. Watson Talks.

A Washington dispatch to the Indianapolis Star this morning says: "Oom Jack" Gowdy, consul general at Paris, wants another term. This is the word which comes straight across the waters from Paris. More than that he believes he is entitled to it on his record, which is conceded to be one of great efficiency. A while back there were rumors that Mr. Gowdy had concluded to retire of his own free will and that both and Mrs. Gowdy were anxious to get back to their broad acres in Rush county, Ind.

Now comes later and more reliable information to the effect that Gowdy is hoping to continue in office and that Mrs. Gowdy, who was very much averse to Paris life when they first went there, has become accustomed to the social atmosphere, in fact that she has fallen in love with the gay French people and their capital.

Congressman Watson was one of the first men to suspect that Mr. Gowdy had designs on remaining in Paris. About three weeks ago he wrote a letter to Mr. Gowdy asking as to his intentions. He has not received a reply yet. As Gowdy is a constituent, as well as a friend of Watson, the latter will support him if he decides to make a fight to retain his place.

It is doubtful whether Mr. Gowdy will go to the length of bringing congressional influence to bear on the President. His main reliance, it is said, is on the administration of his office, which has given him a good reputation among consular officers as well as among Americans who have been in Paris during his regime. His eight years will expire March 23d. The prevailing belief here is that he will not be reappointed. It is the accepted understanding that Frank H. Mason, of Cleveland, O., the present consul general at Berlin, will succeed him.

In an interview cabled today from Paris to the New York Herald, Mr. Gowdy for the first time broke the silence on the subject of his intended removal. He said: "I know nothing about any proposed change. I have received no intimation whatever from Washington, though I am in constant communication with headquarters. Of course I shall regret to leave Paris. I can tell you nothing about my future plans, as I have not had time to make any. I must wait until I receive official notice of the proposed change."

General regret, it is reported, has been excited in the American colony at Paris over the statement that Mr. Gowdy is to be superseded.

When seen at his office this morning Mr. Watson stated that he knows nothing whatever of Mr. Gowdy's intentions and desires. He has received no word from him in answer to his letter. He has not been in Washington for three weeks and has received no intimation from President Roosevelt as to what the latter will do about the Paris consularship. Mr. Watson can do nothing in the matter until he hears from Mr. Gowdy.

IT HIT THE MARK.

Governor's Recommendation Created a Stir.

Indianapolis, Jan. 7.—Governor Durbin's recommendation that the legislature enact a law placing the burden of securing a liquor license on the applicant has created a greater stir than he probably anticipated. A number of brewers had their heads together here today, and it is supposed they were discussing the matter. It is safe to predict that they will never permit the passage of a law like the governor recommended without fighting to the very last ditch. The governor's suggestion met with the favor of a number of members who have had the same idea in mind, but it is believed that a majority of the party leaders would rather leave the liquor laws stand as they are. The brewers and others engaged in the liquor business will not remain idle, however, so long as there is a ghost of a probability of the governor's recommendation being carried out. The Anti-Saloon League has a lobby here to look after the interests of the temperance forces, but the liquor men will also come to the front more prominently in view of the threatened attack on their business.

THE SERVICE TO MORRISTOWN

The Second I. and C. Car Will be Sent Out as Soon as it Arrives and is Set up.

There will be no car sent to Morristown on the I. & C. traction line tomorrow as has been rumored about town. The company is prepared to run a car, as far as the ballasting of the road is concerned at once, but no car will be sent out to Morristown until the arrival of the second car, which is now on its way to this city from the St. Louis Car company's shops. The car was expected today, but did not arrive and as far as can be learned it is near Springfield, Ill. Freight of its class is never rushed, and it may be two or three days before it arrives. The company will not chance the presence of any further than the city limits.

WAYWARD GIRL

Dying of Consumption Writes to Her Father.

A pathetic story is reported from Milan, Ripley county. Herman Schmar, a wealthy retired farmer, living north of that place, has received a message from San Diego, Cal., stating that his eldest and long-lost daughter Ethel, is dying of consumption, and has made a request that her father be notified of her whereabouts and condition.

This is the first news Mr. Schmar has received from his daughter for twenty-three years. He has gone to San Diego. Should the daughter be dead when he arrives he will bring the body back with him and give it burial near the old home of the unfortunate woman.

Twenty-three years ago Ethel Schmar, a comely young miss, scarcely out of her teens and the sunlight of a happy home, was enticed away by a fruit tree agent, having become infatuated with the adventurer.

After a few months spent in traveling about the country the man deserted her and in her bitter sorrow and deep disgrace the girl refrained from notifying her parents of her whereabouts, resolving to suffer alone.

Her father spent large sums of money in an effort to locate her, but was unable to do so. The message referred to above is the first word ever received from the woman. The author of the girl's trouble was shot and killed several years ago in Mexico, by a Mexican woman whom he had betrayed.

Praise keeps a woman young and a man—dead broke.

MANY MILES OF INTERURBAN

The Electric Roads are Reaching Out to all Parts of Indiana.

The Blessing Derived From Them—Cheaper Fares Compel Roads to Meet.

The lines of electric railway in operation in Indiana at the end of 1904 had a total mileage of 7,905 miles. Of these lines of the Indianapolis Northern division of the Indiana Union Traction Company from Kokomo to Logansport, and from Kokomo to Peru, and of the Evansville & Princeton Traction Co., from Evansville to Princeton, were placed in operation during 1903. The year closed with the Rushville branch of the Indianapolis & Cincinnati Traction Co., from Indianapolis to Rushville, almost ready to run cars through to Indianapolis.

At the close of 1903 the most remarkable feature in the electric railway situation was the promise of large things near accomplishment. A number of lines projected during the year give promise of connection by interurban railways between Indianapolis and South Bend. Our road will go through eventually from Indianapolis to Connersville and to Cincinnati. Lines are also being projected between Indianapolis to New Castle and Winchester. Other lines are projected from Indianapolis to French Lick, and other southern points, and to points west, through Danville, Ind., to Danville, Ill.

Early this year it is also expected that the Indiana Union Traction Co., and the Ft. Wayne & Wabash Valley will begin the operation of through limited cars between Ft. Wayne and Indianapolis.

The history of the trolley lines is one wherein the steam roads figure to a more or less extent. Time was when the officers of the steam roads paid no attention to the struggling trolley lines, but since they have been perfected up to the present stage and are reaching their arms out in all directions, they have become serious competitors for the steam railroads. This competition is most keenly felt, as is evidenced by the cut in passenger rates in many parts of the country to the level of the trolley lines. This in itself indicates that the steam roads are hurt. When the lines are completed into this city, we may expect to see a reduction in railway fares in many directions. It will be welcomed, and we believe that not withstanding the increased facilities for travel, all will have a fair share of business. The experience of other sections is that with cheap fares people travel often, and in the long run spend more money to transportation companies than they would if the fares were higher. This is repeating an old story because it is a well known fact that with cheapness comes more than double consumption, be it railway tickets or food products.

CHURCH DEBT

The Main Street Christian Church Will Probably Pay all Claims Today.

The solicitors who have been raising funds from the members of the Christian church and other citizens for the purpose of paying off the church debt, have met with good success, and at noon today the officers of the church after winding up the work, stated that they believed they had enough money on hands to pay off the indebtedness of the church by tonight. Should the entire number of claims against the church be paid tonight the church will hold a service of rejoicing tomorrow.

A COLD MONTH

For Thirty-Three Years January Has Held the Record.

January for thirty-three years has been a cold month. That is as far as the records for the Indianapolis weather bureau go, but they show the average to be twenty-eight degrees. The warmest month was twenty-five years ago, when the average was eighteen. The month of greatest precipitation was in 1890, when 10.30 inches of rain fell. The least was in 1902, when there was but .76 inch. The greatest amount of snowfall in any consecutive twenty-four hours was on January 10-11, 1895, when 9.6 inches of the beautiful descended. January winds their highest velocity on January 17, 1897, when they attained a speed of fifty-seven miles an hour.

DEMENTED STRANGER

Wanders About the Streets of St. Paul—Covered With Blood.

Nothing has as yet been learned concerning the identity of the stranger, who, Thursday afternoon, with his face bruised and bloody, his nose broken, head cut and hands lacerated, and bearing severe bruises upon his body, wandered into St. Paul. The stranger was a tall fair complected man, apparently about forty years of age. He wore a suit of gray jeans and was evidently a farm laborer. He was hatless and his hair was matted with blood, which had oozed from an ugly wound at the side of his eye. He talked incoherently "about service in the army and injuries received in the battle at Hope" on Wednesday, and stated that he thought the army "got whipped," but when questioned closely, refused to talk further.

The man is now in jail at Greensburg, and gives his name as William Barnett, and his residence as Hope, but upon inquiry it was learned that he did not live there. He first said that he had been thrown from a train.

He was seen Thursday morning wandering about the Bickhart Mills and other points in the neighborhood, one mile southwest of St. Paul.

GONE THE WAY.

(New Castle Democrat)

The most pathetic article that has met our eye in many moons was a tribute written by a Knightstown preacher to the good qualities and virtues of the Daily Journal of that place which suspended publication last Saturday. Now that the paper is dead its worth is appreciated. For four or five years the paper was published giving a daily report of events as they occurred in Knightstown, and at the starvation price of six cents a week. It was making a donation to the people of that community. If the editor was rich to afford it, very well. But the man who publishes a daily paper in a town under 10,000 population and sells it for less than 10 cents is selling the paper below cost. He is losing money and will have to quit sooner or later. It has been tried too many times and always failed. But every once in a while some fellow bobs up who thinks he is smarter than all those who have gone before, only to meet a like fate. Newspapers are the cheapest things on earth. Nobody kicks on the price, except an occasional chronic belly-acher and the publisher who seeks to placate those few individuals will meet a deserved fate. It is only when papers can get thousands and ten thousands of subscribers and five to twenty times the advertising rate paid to local papers, that they can sell at a cent a day. Even in a city the size of Muncie it cost George McUnloch $80,000 to get the Star on its feet. The futility of a man with limited capital trying to compete in price with a city daily can be seen at a glance.

THE CIRCUIT IS SETTLED

Dayton and Springfield, O. Teams are Admitted to the Sunday League.

Jesse Ruby and John McCord Will Pitch for Rushville—The League Meeting.

The Dayton Reserves and the Y. M. I. teams of Dayton and Springfield, Ohio, respectively, were admitted to the Sunday League at the meeting held Friday night at the Palace Hotel in Cincinnati. The league for the season of 1905 is now completed and will be composed of eight teams, with Covington, Hamilton, Middletown and Rushville, the teams with grounds. The traveling teams will be the Hamilton Shamrocks, Kentuckians, Y. M. I., of Springfield, and the Dayton Reserves. Ray Fox, of Cincinnati, who has for a number of years been a devoted admirer of the national game, and who was instrumental in forming the Sunday League in its first season, was elected an honorary member of the league. A committee on rules, consisting of Messrs. Miller, Allan and Fox, was appointed by President Thurman. Secretary Burgess was instructed to draft a schedule and present same at the next meeting, which has been set for January 30th. All clubs are requested to note the date of the next meeting and be present, as important business will be transacted. Manager Geraghty of the local club will attend the next meeting. He was unable to attend the meeting last night. The proposition made by the Indianapolis Reserves at the meeting last night was turned down. Rushville will be the only Hoosier town in the league.

Manager Geraghty is receiving many letters from some of the best semi-professional players in the State, and is in a position to pick the very best team possible. He has already signed Jesse Ruby, of the Davenport Three I. League team, and little Johnnie McCord of the Louisville American Association club, who pitched such phenomenal ball for Greensburg last season. Eddie Carter, Rushville's short stop is now at Columbus, O., where he has signed to play in the American Association. His place will be filled by one of the best short stops in the State, whose name, when given out, will prove quite a surprise.

PINIONED UNDER A FALLEN TREE

A falling tree crushed out the life of Henry H. Melle and injured Frank Melle yesterday afternoon on their farm about a mile northeast of the driving park at Richmond. All of Henry Melle's left ribs were broken, his lungs crushed and his shoulder and hip badly mangled. Physicians were summoned, but before they arrived death had relieved Melle's suffering.

The Melle brothers were cutting down trees on the farm when the accident occurred. About 2 o'clock, after having chopped a large tree almost in two, they began putting in wedges for the purpose of making it fall in a certain direction. As they were doing this work the tree suddenly fell in the direction not intended, and both were pinioned down. Henry was under the trunk of the tree, while Frank was pinioned down by a heavy limb. Frank called to his brother for help, but his brother answered, "I can't get out and I guess I am done for." Frank then called louder for help and his daughter heard the cry. She ran to the scene and was able to release her father. The two then released Henry, but nothing could be done to save his life.

A horse appreciates kindness, but he wants it accompanied by horse sense. Plenty of hay is better than too many lumps of sugar.

AT THE SOCIAL CLUB

Bliss-Sexton Bowling Club Banquet, a Swell Affair.

The Bliss-Sexton Bowling club held its third annual banquet last night at the beautiful home of the Social club on West First street. The banquet was attended by twenty-four members, and two former members, who were invited to be present. The banquet was probably the nicest affair that the club has ever given and was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone present.

The dining room where the banquet was spread was beautifully decorated for the occasion and was brilliantly illuminated by red candles. The centerpiece for the table consisted of a large basket of pink carnations.

A seven course supper was spread. Gates Sexton was toastmaster, and toasts by Messrs. Claude Cambern and R. F. Scudder, Mrs. R. L. Tompkins and Miss Mattie B. Lacy were listened to and enjoyed. The place cards were prepared by Mrs. Della Dunn and were very unique.

The banquet was followed by euchre in which the remainder of the evening was spent. The Bliss side of the club scored a victory over the Sexton side by a large majority. Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Scudder received the prizes, a fine book and spoon, respectively, for the highest scores. Mr. Scudder tied with Melvin Moore and it was found necessary to cut in order to settle the prize question. The score cards were kept by Mrs. Fred Johnson and Mrs. J. P. Frazee, and were a departure from anything ever used before.

Those present at the banquet were: Mr. and Mrs. Claude Cambern, Mr. and Mrs. Will Bliss, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Tompkins, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Scudder, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mull, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Riggs, Mr. and Mrs. Gates Sexton, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Abercrombie, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnson, Melvin Moore, Miss Mattie B. Lacy, Vincent Young, Miss Prue Ochiltree, Will McColegin, Mrs. Harriet Plough, and two former members and guests, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Frazee.

OFFERS PRIZE TO THE BOYS.

George W. Thomas, of this city, offers a silver cup as a prize at the coming State fair to the boy under 16 years of age, who exhibits the best steer under one year in the State class for Shorthorns, the calf to be a Short-horn or grade Shorthorn and to be fed and owned by the exhibitor. This prize is offered for the purpose of encouraging the boys to higher ideas of agriculture and stock growing. Boys, here is your opportunity. Fathers, encourage your boys.

WHAT THE PEOPLE SAY

"Have you ever noticed," said a well known citizen this morning, "that whenever a number of men using tobacco, and doing a large amount of spitting gather about a stove, they will always take a shot at the stove, no matter how many cuspidors are near at hand. And then again, I sometimes wonder why it is that a man, whenever he sees a sign, 'Fresh Paint' hanging around, he will invariably walk up and touch the paint to see if it really is fresh. Yes, it is queer."

The Republican acknowledges the receipt of an invitation from Governor-elect J. Frank Hanly to attend the inauguration ceremonies at the capitol in Indianapolis on Monday at 12 m. Also a reception at the governor's parlors from 7:30 to 9:30 p. m. The invitation is one of the finest ever issued.

READY TO RETIRE

Governor Durbin Clears His Desk for His Successor.

Indianapolis, Jan. 4.—Governor Durbin today completed his arrangements to quit the office he has held for the last four years. He has everything ready for the coming of J. Frank Hanly, who will succeed him Monday at noon. The governor has been a hard worker and will probably welcome an opportunity for a well-earned rest. It is understood that he will spend a few weeks here, after which he and Mrs. Durbin may go to Florida to spend the remainder of the winter. When it was announced that he would not be a candidate for United States senator, it was said that he and Mrs. Durbin might go to Europe. The governor is a man of wealth and has large interests at Anderson. It is said that he has about determined to return to Anderson and look after his affairs as soon as he recovers from the strain he has recently undergone as governor.

The unseating of the two Democrats from Allen county as members of the house did not create much furor, but there is deep interest in the outcome of the contest over the seat from Jefferson county between Joe Cravens, Democrat, and Samuel Wallace, Republican. This contest will probably not be settled until party lines, but strictly on its merits. Cravens was a popular member two years ago. He and Wallace tied in the November election according to the report of the election board. Governor Durbin called a special election, but Wallace refused to participate. Cravens received over 1,000 votes at the special election and has credentials from his county. The matter will be settled Tuesday or Wednesday. The Republicans, of course, can unseat Cravens if they desire, but it is very probable that a full hearing will be given the case. Many of the party leaders seem to feel that he won and ought to be seated. Wallace's claim is that he was elected, but votes cast for him were not counted.

Superintendent Will H. Whittaker of the Indiana Reformatory at Jeffersonville, has been here most of the time since the legislature convened. He is interested in securing a provision for the establishment and maintenance of a training school at his institution. An appropriation of $50,000 will be necessary for supplies for the school and an appropriation of $15,000 or $20,000 a year for maintenance is demanded. The prison labor contracts at the reformatory expire the first of next year and it will be necessary to arrange for some employment for the inmates or lock them in their cells, which would result in conditions too painful to consider calmly. The prison reform board will, it is understood, report in favor of Superintendent Whittaker's plan. He is confident it will be adopted and that a suitable appropriation will be made.

The statehouse is being handsomely decorated for the inauguration of J. Frank Hanly as governor and Hugh T. Miller as lieutenant governor, Monday. This will be a big event and will consume most of the day, although something may be done in the legislature before the ceremonies begin. The rotunda and first corridor are resplendent in flags and the chandeliers have been equipped with various colored incandescent globes to make the scene more beautiful. A platform is being erected under the rotunda for the inauguration of the governor, which will attract attention, not only of the party leaders but the public in general.

RISKY BUSINESS

Two Fatalities Caused by Realism on a London Stage.

London, Jan. 7.—At the Coliseum, the largest music hall in London and which was opened a fortnight ago, a vivid representation of the Derby is produced by a revolving stage. Last night Jockey Dent, riding the outside horse, attempted to pull across, but his horse stumbled on the iron-work surrounding the revolving platform and rolled over the proscenium into the orchestra beneath. Dent was thrown violently on his head, and was taken to a hospital unconscious, where he died soon afterward. Another fatal accident occurred at the Coliseum during a rehearsal prior to the opening of the house.

Historic Troop as Host.

Philadelphia, Jan. 7.—Announcement is made that on the occasion of the visit of President Roosevelt to this city on Washington's Birthday to attend the annual exercises of the University of Pennsylvania in memory of Washington, he will be a guest at luncheon of the First Troop, Philadelphia City Cavalry, one of the oldest military organizations in the country.

May Cut Off Pay.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 7.—As a protest against the brutalities that are alleged to have been employed in suppressing the student demonstrations at Moscow, the municipality of that city has decided to suppress a vote for the maintenance of gendarmes until the offenders are punished.

Two Signalmen Killed.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Jan. 7.—J. R. Good and F. G. Ungerer of this city, signal men employed by the Pennsylvania railroad, walked on the tracks at Ada, Ohio, last evening, while doing some work, and were struck by a west-bound passenger train. Both were instantly killed.

BISHOP SPALDING STRICKEN

Well-Known Prelate Suffering From Paralysis.

Peoria, Ill., Jan. 7.—Bishop John L. Spalding is at his residence in this city, suffering from a severe paralytic stroke. The entire left side of the bishop's body is affected. The bishop is sixty-five years old and, while he has been in fair health physically all his life, his age tends to add to the fear of his friends for another and more serious attack.

Bills Against Polygamy.

Boise, Idaho, Jan. 7.—In accordance with the paragraph in Governor Gooding's message calling attention to the agitation against polygamy previously to the recent state election recommending prohibitory legislation, bills have been introduced in both houses of the legislature making the practice of polygamy and adultery criminal and imposing severe penalties. It is stated that both bills will probably be passed.

Petition for Rehearing Granted.

Washington, Jan. 7.—The interstate commerce commission has telegraphed President Ripley of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe railroad that it will give a rehearing in Chicago of the Colorado Fuel and Iron case, probably on Friday or Saturday of next week, though possibly not until later. This is the case in which charges were made of granting rebates by the railroad to the Colorado company.

Sentenced for Life.

Savannah, Ill., Jan. 7.—William Myers, awaiting a second trial here for the murder of Wayland F. Bennett of Thomson in September, appeared before Judge Heard and withdrew his plea of not guilty, entered at the trial in November. He then pleaded guilty to the charge of murder and was sentenced to the penitentiary for life at hard labor.

Seven Identical Treaties.

Washington, Jan. 7.—Arbitration treaties between the United States and seven foreign governments were made public by order of the senate in executive session. The countries making the treaties are Great Britain, Portugal, France, Switzerland, Germany, Italy and Spain. All of the treaties are drawn in practically the same form.

Not Through With Bishop.

New York, Jan. 7.—It is learned here that a new presentment against Bishop Talbot of the central Pennsylvania diocese of the Protestant Episcopal church is now being prepared by attorneys in Philadelphia. The work is being hastened and it is believed that the necessary papers will be ready to be signed within two weeks.

City Has Had to Pay.

South Bend, Ind., Jan. 7.—On change of venue Agnes Phillips of Michigan City secured judgment for $9,000 against that city on account of injuries received several years ago because of a defective sidewalk. This was sustained by the supreme court. Clerk Alward of this county has just issued an execution against Michigan City, calling for $11,000, which includes interest and cost of judgment.

A "ROUGH HOUSE"

Was Narrowly Averted
When Colorado Legislature Held Joint Session.

PRESIDING OFFICERS

Were Too Numerous by One and the Question of Precedence Produced a Touch-and-Go Complication.

Lieutenant Governor Was Finally Routed From the Rostrom by the Invincible Speaker.

Denver, Col., Jan. 7.—Behind locked doors and amid scenes of great confusion and excitement, the Colorado legislature passed a resolution creating a committee of fifteen members to canvass the vote cast for governor at the last election, and submit a final report to the legislature not later than 2:30 on the afternoon of next Monday. The committee is composed of five senators and ten representatives, the political division being twelve Republicans and three Democrats. It organized by the election of Senator Arthur Cornforth of Colorado Springs as chairman and began the hearing of evidence today.

The trouble began with the first sitting of the joint session and continued until its close. It was understood that there would be a conflict over the respective rights of Speaker Dickson and Lieutenant Governor Haggott to preside over the joint session. Legal advice was given to each gentleman that his position was correct. When the lieutenant governor mounted the rostrum Speaker Dickson was standing in front of the center of his desk and did not move. The lieutenant governor advanced, the two men smiled, bowed, shook hands and then stood gazing into each other's eyes. Neither made a move, and their features hardened as they realized the situation. Together they turned to face the assembly, the speaker behind the center of the desk, the lieutenant governor at his left hand. Gently edging up to the speaker, Lieutenant Governor Haggott gave him a gentle "hunch" with his shoulder as if to move him along. The speaker was immovable. The gentle "hunch" was repeated, and still the speaker held his ground and brought down his gavel with a thump.

"The clerk of the house will call the roll," he said.

Bang went the gavel of the lieutenant governor. "The clerk of the senate will call the roll," he shouted.

Clerk Harper of the house and Secretary Farwell of the senate began to call their respective rolls, when great confusion arose in the house. Members laughed, cheered and shouted.

A few names had been called when Representative Frewen, a "Walcott Republican," shouted: "Mr. Chairman!"

"Mr. Frewen," responded the lieutenant governor.

"You are out of order, Mr. Frewen!" shouted the speaker.

"You have the floor, Mr. Frewen," said the lieutenant governor.

Bang, Bang! went the speaker's gavel.

Boom, Boom! went the gavel of the lieutenant governor.

Mr. Frewen accepted the ruling of the man who gave him what he wanted, and commenced to speak to a point of order, which was that the president of the senate was the proper presiding officer at a joint session.

"You are out of order; sit down!" commanded the speaker.

"You have the floor," said the lieutenant governor, and again the gavels resounded with resolute whacks.

"I move this session adjourn," shouted Senator Morgan.

"It is moved that this session adjourn," shouted the lieutenant governor.

"The session will not adjourn, and members will keep their seats," called the speaker.

"All in favor of adjourning will say 'aye,'" called the lieutenant governor.

"All those opposing will say 'no.'"

The ayes and noes came in about equal volume, and then down came the gavel of the lieutenant governor with a vicious slam.

"The ayes have it and the session is dissolved."

Whack! went the speaker's gavel.

"The noes have it, and the session is not dissolved," he said.

"The members of the senate will leave the house," said the lieutenant governor, and quickly walking from the speaker's stand, he strode up the aisle, waving his gavel over his head as though he was leading an infantry charge.

All the Democratic senators and a number of the Republican senators followed him.

"The sergeant at arms will see that nobody leaves the room," said the speaker.

The sergeant, however, was not fast enough on his feet, and the lieutenant governor and the senators filed out.

"Members will resume their seats," said Speaker Dickson. "The joint session is still on." Several Republican senators returned to the house and took part in the proceedings held there until the final adjournment.

The doors were then locked and no member permitted to pass out. The resolution providing for the inquiry was then adopted.

FAVORABLE OUTLOOK

Trade Conditions Point to a Larger Volume of Business.

New York, Jan. 7.—Bradstreet's weekly review of trade today says: Seasonable quiet prevails at present. Cold weather makes for a fair retail trade in winter goods and this, with necessary replenishment of broken stocks, induces a fair reasserting demand at leading centers. Butressing the expectations of a satisfactory spring trade to come are the fair volume of orders already booked in leading lines of drygoods, shoes, clothing and kindred articles and the generally small stocks reported carried in final distributors' hands. Western jobbers' stocks are reported 10 to 30 per cent smaller than a year ago at this time, and this fact coupled with the knowledge that the coming three and six months' business will compare with a reduced volume a year ago, leads to the belief that comparisons from now on will favor the present year.

The Year's Swarm.

New York, Jan. 7.—During the last year 572,798 steerage passengers arrived at the port of New York. During the same time there were 68,704 cabin passengers, while 93,685 came in the second cabin.

CARE OF GAS STOVES.

How to Keep Them Free From Dust and Dirt.

If the asbestos of stoves or fireplaces becomes discolored or blackened from the gas smoking, as it frequently does, the thing to do is to sprinkle the feathery fiber with common table salt, then light the gas and let it burn the same as usual, says What to Eat. The sooty appearance of the asbestos departs like magic, and the mineral soon resumes its natural whiteness again. It happens, too, that the tiny apertures through which the gas flows become gummed and partially filled in. When such is the case, run a hatpin through the holes, or a round toothpick, and it will readily free them.

It is important also to give particular attention to the gas range if the best results are to be obtained, and this is especially true where it is in constant service for cooking. Things inclined to boil over quickly, like milk and coffee, should be watched to prevent it happening, as they clog the burners and corrode the iron or zinc linings, causing them to rust and get a stained, unsightly appearance.

About once or twice a week, according to the use of the range, the burners should be lifted out, turned upside down and lightly tapped to knock out any dust or soot that might have lodged in the circular aperture that supplies the flame. A hatpin is good for picking out any particles that resist tapping. When not using, keep the lids on the stove.

Keep clean by rubbing with a dry cloth, particularly the oven floor and racks. When anything flows over and burns or greases pops around from baking meats it should be thoroughly scoured with soap and warm water, then wiped with a dry rag. Keeping all gas stoves polished prevents them from rusting.

How to Use a Face Brush.

Immerse the brush in water as hot as can be pleasantly borne. Soap it well, just as you would if you were about to use it for your hands. Scrub the face thoroughly, taking especial care of the places that most require cleansing. Rinse the face with cooler clean water, so as to get all of the soap out of the pores. Dry carefully and apply a cream or toilet balsam. Any good emollient will answer.

How to Have New Shoes Fitted.

"People who buy ready-made shoes would find their footgear much more comfortable if only they would stand up instead of sitting down to be fitted," said an experienced salesman. "Nine out of ten customers, especially women, want to sit in a comfortable chair all the time they are fitting shoes, and it is with difficulty that one can get them to stand a few minutes even after the shoe is fitted. Then when they begin to walk about a little they wonder why the shoe is less easy than when it was first tried on. The fact is that the foot is smaller when one is sitting than when one is walking about. Exercise brings a larger quantity of blood to the feet, and they swell. The muscles, too, require a certain amount of room. In buying shoes this must be borne in mind or one cannot hope to be shod comfortably."

How to Blanch and Shell Chestnuts.

With a sharp pointed knife slit each shell across one side. Cook one minute in boiling water, drain and let dry. Add a teaspoonful of butter for each pint of nuts and stir and shake over the fire or in the oven three or four minutes; then remove the shell and skin together. Keep the nuts covered with a cloth in the meantime, as they shell more easily when hot.

How to Open a New Book.

If books were rightly treated when they are newly bound there would be less likelihood of their backs being broken afterward by rough handling. The covers should be opened one at a time and laid as far back as the table upon which the book is resting; then gradually all the leaves, a few at the back and a few at the front of the book, should be laid upon the covers. The book will then be in condition for ordinary wear, and the covers will not break away if not abused. When called suddenly away from a book which you are reading do not lay it face down on a table or throw a handkerchief between its leaves, but have a book marker handy.

NEW YORK FASHIONS

Patterns for Lady's Costume Designed by Martha Dean

ETON and bolero jackets are greatly in demand and are made up for the smartest kind of wear. Their popularity is not far to seek, for they are becoming to both the slight woman and her stouter sister. Then, too, they are so simple and easy to make—not much more work than an ordinary shirt waist. They are certainly the most successful coats the home dressmaker has had to deal with in a long time. In this model the coat is cut with long shoulder extending over the sleeve in cap effect. This gives a decidedly quaint air to the garment, besides lengthening the shoulder line. The front comes well down in pointed tab effect and may be worn with or without a fancy vest. The skirt is a new seven gore floor style, having the front finished by three backward turning tucks which form a panel. The model is suitable for any of the new weaves, either in cotton, silk or woolen. It is capable of several variations, and a simple or elaborate costume can be fashioned from such a foundation.

Patterns Nos. 6158 and 6159.

Sizes for jacket, No. 6158, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches bust measure.

Sizes for skirt, No. 6159, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32 inches waist measure.

DIRECTIONS FOR ORDERING

Send 25 cents to this office, give numbers of these patterns, Nos. 6158 and 6159, and state sizes desired. They will then be sent to you by mail postpaid. Or either of the patterns will be sent for 10 cents. Be sure to write plainly and always give full address. Several days must be allowed for delivery of pattern.

TILLMAN KNOCKED OUT

Senate Finally Confirms W. D. Crum's Nomination.

Washington, Jan. 7.—The nomination of W. D. Crum, a negro, to be collector of customs for the port of Charleston, S. C., was confirmed by the senate in executive session by a vote of 33 to 17. Crum had been nominated by the president three times and in addition had received three recess appointments. Confirmation was opposed by Senator Tillman, who objected to the appointment of a negro. When Crum receives his commission he will be entitled to receive the salary which has accumulated since his first appointment.

DR. W. D. CRUM.

LESSON FROM THE SIEGE

Congress Listens to Some Points on Modern Warfare.

Washington, Jan. 7.—The house yesterday passed the fortifications appropriation bill and adjourned until Monday. After Mr. Littauer of New York had drawn a lesson from the submarine mines had proven of the greatest importance in warfare Mr. Baker enlivened the proceedings by attacking President Roosevelt, who, he said, wanted to hold himself up as the "counterpart of Wilhelm II., the great war god." Later Mr. Baker found fault with the provision in the bill permitting the entry of such war material as might be purchased abroad, and charged the Republican party as being frauds in their contention that the foreigner paid the tax.

Senator Bard occupied the entire time of the senate given to the joint statehood bill. He made an argument against the union of Arizona and New Mexico on the ground that the people of the two territories do not desire it. Several bills of minor importance were passed.

TEXAS FRUIT LANDS

Produce Early Crops Which Bring Fancy Prices.

In Texas they begin shipping berries in April, tomatoes in May, Peaches in June, bringing fancy prices up North.

The growing season is much longer than in the North—a chance to make two and three crops, reducing the expense of "getting through" the winter.

Fruit and truck lands along the Cotton Belt Route are very cheap as yet—$10 to $15 an acre unimproved. When put to orchard or truck they can be made to yield $100 to $200 per acre and more.

Besides, it's an ideal climate—no long cold winters. Write for booklet on fruit and truck growing.

Johnson Says Dr. Behers ACTIVE LIVER PILLS

We do not know of a single pill on the market that is so thoroughly satisfactory. They neither Nauseate nor Grip, yet produce a natural movement of the bowels and stimulate the liver to a healthy action that makes a friend of every one that tries them.

CHURCH NEWS

Beginning with the new year the C. H. & D. will discontinue its time-honored institution, the pay car, and hereafter pay by check. The local agent will be the disbursing officer here, giving the company's employees their checks and taking their receipt therefor. Pay day will probably come a few days later than heretofore, when the car visited the parts on the 20th.

The Charles Vance mentioned in yesterday's Republican as having been arrested for embezzlement, is not the Charles Vance from this city, but a young man, who formerly lived at Connersville and is well known here. We make this statement in justice to Mr. Hill Vance, who is being caused some inconvenience by the announcement.

Mrs. J. T. Johnson and Mrs. W. Frazier Johnson gave a reception yesterday afternoon at the home of the former, in Woodruff Place, Indianapolis, in honor of Mrs. Oscar L. Huey, who will leave in a week for Oklahoma City to live. Among the guests were Mrs. L. Hinchman, of Knightstown; Mrs. Alfred Blackledge, of this city; Miss Hunt, of Carthage; Mrs. O. E. Holloway, of Knightstown, and Miss West of Cincinnati.

MAY REMAIN IN RUSHVILLE

Madden and Company May Move to the Sterling Factory Building.

Arrangements are being made whereby Madden & Company, who sometime ago submitted a proposition to the citizens for a better plant, will probably remain in this city. An effort is now being made to close a deal for the factory building recently occupied by the Sterling Buggy company, and if the arrangement is completed Madden Co. will move to that place, where they will enlarge their plant. A cement floor will probably be laid throughout the entire building if the deal is closed.

FOUND THE BODY HANGING IN JAIL

Fearing that he would be sent to the penitentiary for a trivial offense, William Townsend, aged 30, hanged himself in the city jail at Richmond early Friday morning. An officer found his dead body suspending from the bars of his cell door at 6 o'clock. Townsend had tied a large blue handkerchief through the grating of the door, slipped the loop about his neck, and lifting his feet from the floor and strangled to death. Townsend was arrested Thursday night for attempting to break into a lady's room at the Brunswick hotel in Richmond.

Word has been received by relatives here of the death of Mrs. Seneca L. LaBue, of Riverside, California, which occurred on Saturday, Dec. 31st. Mrs. LaBue formerly lived near Andersonville, and was the mother of Miss Irene LaBue, who visited the Misses Bohannon here this summer.

STATE NEWS.

A Mother's Great Grief.
Wabash, Ind., Jan. 7.—Mrs. William Patterson of Akron, whose mental condition, resulting from the accidental drowning of her two boys, caused much anxiety, is slowly convalescing. The boys were drowned in Town lake, and their bodies were recovered and buried in the same coffin.

Bad City Clerk Convicted.
Marion, Ind., Jan. 7.—John S. Watts, ex-city clerk, charged with the embezzlement of city funds, was last night found guilty by a jury and sentenced to imprisonment for a term of from two to six years. Eight indictments still remain against Watts.

Last of the Turnpikes.
Dillsboro, Ind., Jan. 7.—The Ripley county council has appropriated $7,750 for the purchase of the Osgood and Napoleon turnpike. This is $1,200 less than the appraised value. There are now no toll pikes in the county.

Denies Government's Contention.
Washington, Jan. 7.—Arguments in the case of Swift & Co. against the United States, known as the beef trust conspiracy case, have begun before the supreme court of the United States by Attorney John S. Miller of Chicago, in behalf of the packers. He attacked the bill of the government as insufficient in its failure to allege facts necessary to constitute a cause of action and said that the charges made are not facts, but conclusions of law; that the commerce charged is not interstate or foreign commerce, and that even if it be interstate commerce the facts given constitute no violation of law.

Negro Sentenced to Hang.
Lexington, Ky., Jan. 7.—After being out an hour the jury in the case of Ed Taylor last night returned a verdict of guilty and fixing death as the penalty. He is one of the three negroes who on Sunday, Nov. 20, killed William Moore in a raid on "white dogs," firing a fusillade into a company of white men in a saloon.

Reinforcements Arriving.
Irkutsk, Jan. 7.—Many troop trains are passing south through this place on the way to reinforce the Russian army in Manchuria. The news of the fall of Port Arthur was received by the new soldiers with sadness, but they express an undiminished determination to retake it.

A Good Offer.

THE UNION GOSPEL NEWS and THE DAILY REPUBLICAN, both for one year for $3.60 by mail. To every person who accepts this proposition on or before Jan. 21, we will present a fine cloth bound copy of Charles Wagner's great book, "THE SIMPLE LIFE."

At the City Opera House.

The announcement of the dramatization of Marie Corelli's great novel, "Thelma," will be presented at the city opera house Wednesday, January 11th, will prove a pleasant surprise to the many admirers of Corelli's master piece. Critics are unanimous in their belief that "Thelma" is the only one of this popular writer's novels whose construction will admit of a dramatization sufficiently lucid to prove interesting when placed before an audience in its entirety. Managers Spedden & Vancok have for this season's production of excellence, including Miss Claire Paige, a well known western actress, as "Thelma" her fourth season with the company. Seats on sale Saturday, January 7th, at Hargrove & Mullin's druggists.

AGENT WANTED.—For Block Gas Heater for heating bed rooms, bath rooms, parlors, etc., warm room in ten minutes; boils water or makes coffee in same time; sits right over burner; burns either gas; does not increase bill; no odor or smoke; patented Nov. 15, 1904. To a good honest man I will give the exclusive agency for Rushville. Call and see it burn at the Windsor hotel. Henry Howard, state agent.
